

At The-Netpreneur.com, I understand that privacy online is important to users of my Website, especially when conducting business. This statement governs my privacy policies with respect to those users of the Site ("Visitors") who visit without transacting business and Visitors who register to transact business on the Site and make use of the various services offered by The-Netpreneur.Com.

Personally Identifiable Information

Refers to any information that identifies or can be used to identify, contact, or locate the person to whom such information pertains, including, but not limited to, name, address, phone number, fax number, email address, financial profiles, social security number, and credit card information. Personally Identifiable Information does not include information that is collected anonymously (that is, without identification of the individual user) or demographic information not connected to an identified individual.

What Personally Identifiable Information is collected?

I may collect basic user profile information from all of my Visitors. I collect the following additional information from my Authorized Customers: the names, addresses, phone numbers and email addresses of Authorized Customers, the nature and size of the business, and the nature and size of the advertising inventory that the Authorized Customer intends to purchase or sell.

What organizations are collecting the information?

In addition to my direct collection of information, my third party service vendors (such as credit card companies, clearinghouses and banks) who may provide such services as credit, insurance, and escrow services may collect this information from my Visitors and Authorized Customers. I do not control how these third parties use such information, but I do ask them to disclose how they use personal information provided to them from Visitors and Authorized Customers. Some of these third parties may be intermediaries that act solely as links in the distribution chain, and do not store, retain, or use the information given to them.

How does the Site use Personally Identifiable Information?

I use Personally Identifiable Information to customize the Site, to make appropriate service offerings, and to fulfill buying and selling requests on the Site (if any). I may email Visitors and Authorized Customers about research or purchase and selling opportunities on the Site or information related to the subject matter of the Site. I may also use Personally

Identifiable Information to contact Visitors and Authorized Customers in response to specific inquiries, or to provide requested information.

With whom may the information may be shared?

Personally Identifiable Information about Authorized Customers may be shared with other Authorized Customers who wish to evaluate potential transactions with other Authorized Customers. I may share aggregated information about my Visitors, including the demographics of my Visitors and Authorized Customers, with my affiliated agencies and third party vendors. I also offer the opportunity to “opt out” of receiving information or being contacted by me or by any agency acting on my behalf.

How is Personally Identifiable Information stored?

Personally Identifiable Information collected by The-Netpreneur.Com is securely stored and is not accessible to third parties or employees of The-Netpreneur except for use as indicated above.

What choices are available to Visitors regarding collection, use and distribution of the information?

Visitors and Authorized Customers may opt out of receiving unsolicited information from or being contacted by me and/or my vendors and affiliated agencies by responding to emails as instructed.

Are Cookies Used on the Site?

Cookies are used for a variety of reasons. I may use Cookies to obtain information about the preferences of my Visitors and the services they select. I may also use Cookies for security purposes to protect my Authorized Customers. For example, if an Authorized Customer is logged on and the site is unused for more than 10 minutes, I will automatically log the Authorized Customer off.
