Note: Initial stuff is basic one so you can skip this if you are already knowledgeable about what affiliate marketing actually is.

Affiliate marketing is one of the most profitable ways to earn money online. If you have a know how about online marketing or online business, you may already know what affiliate marketing is but if you don't know, then no problems as in this article I am going tell you about:

- What is an Affiliate Marketing?
- Why Affiliate Marking?
- Ten Most Influential Affiliate Marketers for you to learn more about Affiliate

Marketing

So, Lets Start:

What is Affiliate Marketing

An Affiliate marketing is basically an agreement or arrangement between An Affiliate Marketer and retailer who pays commissions to him/her as a result of making sales by marketing its products & services.

In simple words, let's say you have a blog or website, you can simply become an affiliate marketer of a company/retailer, sell its products or services and make commissions.

It is a kind of performance based marketing, the more sales you make, more earnings you will have, it is that simple.

Note: To keep it simple for newbies, in above definition, I have mentioned "Earning Money by making sales" This is very generic type of term used for making money with affiliate programs but in actual many affiliate programs also pay you money by deriving visitors who complete other specific steps as well like download their software, Install apps, submit forms (pay per lead), pay per call etc. But since this is not a scope of this article so we are just defining the affiliate term in its simplest form.

Who Is An Affiliate Marketer
